

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to William James, from March 18, 1906 to March 22, 1909

Gifts 1331 CONNECTICUT AVENUE. WASHINGTON, D. C. March 18, 1906. Prof.
William James, 95 Irving Street, Cambridge, Mass. Dear Prof. James:—

Your note of February 19 received. It will give me great pleasure to join other friends of Prof. Charles S. Pierce by contributing $50.00 a year towards his support. I am only sorry to learn that such a movement is necessary.

Yours sincerely, Alexander Graham Bell Dear Mr. Bell — the above will remind you of our correspondence last year. Can you renew? as refleshment will soon be necessary.
Sincerely yours, Wm James March 22. 09
